

Dall'8 to 19 September the Auditorium Parco della Musica hosts the third edition of Buenos Aires Tango, the largest Italian exhibition of music, song and dance dedicated to this unique international cultural heritage, created in collaboration with the Ministry of Culture Buenos Aires

In 12 days, the most famous artists from Buenos Aires will perform in 25 shows, as the bill provides for daily dance classes in three different levels for all fans, conferences, exhibitions and return, by popular demand, the Club de Tango Theatre Studio, a model of the famous local tango in Buenos Aires.

Among the events not to miss the unusual encounters with the famous bandoneonists Julio Pane and Daniel Binelli; return Orquesta El Arranque; new proposals of the quartet with the young Esteban Morgado Jesús Hidalgo in Italy for the first time, the Andres Linetzky quartet. Last scheduled event in the Sala Sinopoli Ariel Ardit - El Cantor de Buenos Aires - the most beautiful voices that evokes the golden age of tango. Update also, the new generation of tango dancers, formed from old milongueros.

Absolute novelty of this third edition and digital archiving of tango Space Listening Auditorium. The project aims to preserve the cultural heritage of the tango in an integral manner, cataloged chronologically and thematically, the whole story.

The exhibition is staged at Auditorium Arte El segundo paso a Paul Sciuto, inspired by the words of Borges on the tango. In the foyer Sinopoli photos Sebastián Freire, a selection of images from the book Milongas.

The Serra House hosts Argentina, an exhibition space for cultural and commercial activities related to Tango.

Sunday 12 and Sunday, September 19 13 pm you can enjoy the Tango brunch, accompanied by music and performances by the protagonists of the festival.

Tickets: shows 15 to 25 euros, 2 euros conferences, milonga, greenhouse space, digital archive of tango shows and free admission

Info 06-80241281 - www.auditorium.com