

8 October to 28 November 2010 in Rome returns to the show scene, created by a Resolution of the City Council at the initiative of President of the Committee on Culture, with shows of music, theater and dance to enliven some of the areas most important museum of the city: Markets of Trajan, the Capitoline Museums, Musei di Villa Torlonia hoot owls, Musei di Villa Torlonia Casino Nobile, the Ara Pacis Museum, Museum of Roman Civilization, Museo di Roma in Trastevere, Museo di Roma Palazzo Braschi. The positive results achieved by this summer in Rome Scene confirms the effectiveness of the policy of Rome in the Capital continue to promote initiatives aimed at enhancing the artistic and cultural heritage of the city, encouraging the involvement of private operators engaged in continuous and prominent culture and entertainment.

In the autumn scene in Rome and then to allow citizens and visitors to enjoy for almost two months of the museums in Rome in the evening thanks to a rich calendar of musical events, theatrical performances, dance performances. The event includes both winners of cultural projects for the autumn period of public notice, "Selection of projects for the performing arts and cultural activities to be carried out at the Museums of Rome during the summer and autumn, and some self-produced projects by associations participants.

Scene in Rome Rome is sponsored by Capital Department of Cultural Affairs and Communication - Superintendent of Cultural Heritage and the Chamber of Commerce of Rome, with the help of banks Treasurer of the City of Rome (BNL - BNP Paribas, Unicredit - Banca di Roma, Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena).

The organizational coordination is maintained by Zètema Culture Project.

Here you can download the program of events from 8 October to 28 November 2010